*Yesterday is gone.
Tomorrow has not yet come.
We have only today.
Let us begin.*

-Mother Theresa

*Faith is a living, bold
trust in God's grace,
so certain of God's favor
that it would risk death
a thousand times
trusting in it.*

ON NOV. 11-12, SPEND 36 HOURS
EXPLORING WHY THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS WORTH GIVING YOUR LIFE TO.

We've all had this realization...that our lifetimes are finite. And what you do with your life, and what you accomplish with it, will be the contribution you leave the world. There are thousands of ways a person can spend their life. They can pursue pleasure, or fortune, or power. Others desire to spend their lives for "the greater good", in education, politics, or social justice. But when their own short-comings (or someone else's) hinder or even destroy their progress, their efforts seem to mean nothing. Unquestionably, humanity needs to change, but it seems crazy when its a broken humanity which is trying to fix itself.

The only way that our world will fully realize things like peace, harmony, unity, equality, or freedom, are through God. God has the sole ability to fix this messed-up world, and he does it by having a relationship with individual people. One by one, he heals what's broken in them and gives them a life full of joy and promise, because they follow his ways and trust him to fill their short-comings.

God fixes this world by using people who make themselves available to him – regardless of their education, social class, bad habits or personalities. Imagine making a lasting impact for real, life-changing good, because you let God decide how to spend your life.

Is it safe to give your entire life to the kingdom of God in such a drastic way? Not really. But its simply the most rewarding & satisfying way to live. Come find out for yourself. Is God calling you to something more?

A CAUSE TO LIVE FOR A CAUSE TO DIE FOR

Jamie Watters, is the pastor of Glasgow Westend Vineyard in Glasgow, Scotland. He's been living his life for God's kingdom for quite a while and has planted many churches and brought the power of the holy spirit to those around him through healing and prophesy. This Scotsman is the real deal.

Chris Lizzote was born and raised in Orange County, CA. Chris has released six solo albums for Metro1 Music and Vineyard Music. He has led worship for such events as The National Youth Leaders Convention, Promise Keepers, Campus Crusade as well as many other events across the Nation and Europe. Chris has also written songs for Crystal Lewis, Vineyard Music and Maranatha Music.

Michael and Brenda Gatlin have been involved with the Vineyard since 1988, and have been the senior pastors of the Duluth Vineyard since 1997. They are passionate about training up young leaders - helping them see who God has made them to be - and helping equip them with the tools they need to spread God's kingdom.

In addition to learning from Jamie, and having great worship lead by Chris, there will be workshops throughout the weekend specifically about living the reality of the kingdom of God. You'll rub shoulders and build relationships with folks who have been out there, living for the cause, and who are seeing God work around and through them. Workshops will discuss doing ministry in this age, as a couple, a family, single, as a woman, as a minority, and a lot of other facets of life.

Cost:

$20 early bird (before October 1)

$30 from October 2 – November 10

$40 at the door

The cost includes a light breakfast, lunch, snacks, and all conference materials. An optional $5 dinner will also be available Friday evening.
